LOCAL MATTERS.

THE REMAINS OF JOHN RANDOLPH OF ROA-NOKE REMOVED TO HOLLYWOOD.—The remains of John Randolph of Roanoke the illustrious Virginia orator and statesman. were removed from Charlotte county and placed in Hollywood. They were interred there Saturday afternoon about 1 o'clock. The ceremonies were of the most private character, as was desired by those who had charge of the affair. The spot where the ashes of this great Virginian now lies is situated on a commanding eminence overlooking the river, near a beautiful holly tree, not far from President Monroe's tomb. He was buried Saturday, like previously, with his head looking towards the west or the setting sun (as it was said soon after his death), so that he could watch "Harry of the West" in Kentucky.

After the coffin was exhumed and opened there was exposed to view a perfect skele-ton of the "great commoner." The flesh had entirely left the bones. The pall-bearers were Governor F. W. M. Holliday, John Stewart, Esq., Judge B. R. Wellford, Charles Ellie, Esq., Colonel A. S. Buford, Hon. W. Wirt Henry, Judge Hunter Marshall, J. Horace Lacy, Esq., and Hon. B. Johnson Barbour.

The following persons were present: John Randolph Bryan, Esq., Joseph Bryan, Esq., Hon. John Randolph Tucker, J. R. Tucker, Jr., (son of the late Dr. Tucker, of this city.) Hon. A. M. Keiley, Colonel Charence Taylor, James Alfred Jones, Esq., Major Norman Walker, Captain M. T. Clarke, Colonel Thomas Pinckney, South Carolina, Hon. R. M. T. Hunter, William Green, Esq., Hen. and Mrs. James Lyons, A. Austin Smith, Esq., John B. Bigger, Esq., and Dr. M. M. Walker.

At the ceremonies of the interment Saturday in Hollywood of the remains of John Randolph of Rosnoke one of the pall-bearers, and one alone-Judge Hunter Marshall-was a survivor of those who witnessed the burial of the great Virginian under the pine tree at Roanoke, in the year 1833. Judge Marshall was then a child, and accompanied his father to the burial, and is now perhaps the only citizen of Richmond or of Virginia who has thus assisted at the double obsequies of John Randolph.

PERSONAL-BRIEF ITEMS .- Mr. Chamber layne was before the House Committee for Courts of Justice Saturday asking that so far as cities are concerned the Sunday liquor law be amended as proposed by the Citizens' Association. Judge M. F. Wilson, of the Criminal Court of Cincinnati, who has been in the city for several days, has returned home. Mr. Thomas Seddon's resignation as a member of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce was not accepted, but was laid on the table, on motion of Mr Blankenship. The Board has no idea of losing so useful a member. During the meeting several gentlemen spoke of Mr. Seddon's usefulness, and it was unanimously resolved to table his resignation.

President Buford and Colonel Talcott, of the Richmond and Danville railroad, are going to Atlanta to-day to attend a meeting of the Southern Railway and Steamship Association. General T. M. Logan, of this city, will also attend the meeting of the Association on a matter of arbitration in connection with the Richmond and Piedmont Air-Line.

Rev. J. L. Burrows, D. D., formerly of this city, and now of Louisville, Ky., has IRON BITTERS, received a call to the St. Francis-Street Baptist church, in Mobile, Ala. Rev. H. Melville Jackson has gone to St. for a brief visit.

MONEY LETTER STOLEN.—A colored wo-man named Georgeanna Brooks was arrested Friday in Goochland county, charged with stealing a valuable letter from the Issequena post-office. She was brought before United States Commissioner Atkins Saturday, and the case partially investigated. It appears that the woman went to the postoffice at Issequena and asked for letters for certain parties, including her sister, and was handed one addressed to her sister, which, it was subsequently ascertained, contained money, and which she never delivered. When arrested she admitted receiving the letter, but claimed that she had lost it on the way home. There is no evidence as yet to controvert her statement, although the district attorney asked for a continuance of the case, in order that he might secure the attendance of other witnesses. His request was granted, and the case continued until next Saturday, the 20th Contributions of old clothes and money are earnestly solicited by the ladies, to be sent to the Clifton House, above the Ballard, which is now the place of meeting. Cloth ing will also be received by Mrs. Baker, corner Third and Franklin, and by Mrs. Lea, on Church Hill.

CHANGE OF UNIFORM.—In the House Friday Mr. Chamberlayne presented a petition from the Washington Guard (Captain Mickion) asking for authority to adopt a blue uniform. It was referred to the proper committee.

Where Mency May be Well Invested. The largely-increased business of the Equitable Life-Assurance Society of the United States ought not to surprise anybody. If there is one thing the insuring public ask for more than another, it is absofute certainty that the policy will be paid without hesitation. The Equitable has been justly distinguished for dealing fairly with its clients, but its recent forward step by which its contract is so drawn that no de-

HANCHESTER AND VICINITY. County Supervisors.—The Beard of Su-ervisors of Chesterfield county will meet again at the court-house next Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. The meeting was called at the instance of the judge of the County Court, relative to the repairing of everal small bridges in the county. The Board met not long since, but this matter was not then presented. David McGoode, Esq., is president of the Board. Brief Items .- The colored Debt-Payers of this city have formed a club and elected ficers for the ensuing term. The membership is quite large, and is gradually increasing. A good rain fell throughout the county hast week. It was gladly welcomed by the farmers, and will be very beneficial to them. An important meeting of the City School to astonish the sufferer. Board will be held on the fourth Tuesday of this month to consider a question relative to the government of the schools.

There were some unimportant cases disposed of at the Mayor's Court Saturday. The court for the trying of civil-warrants was not in session.

Several fine brick stores have been built on Hull street recently. They add greatly taken every night, gradually lessening the freto the appearance of that street.

The roll of honor at the public schools this month will be quite large. It has not yet been announced when the public lecture to be given under the aupices of Manchester Division will take place. Our fire-engine has not been called out for service for nearly one year. It is in good working order now.

The mills on the water-line appear to be quite busy at present. There will be religious services at some of the churches in the city Christmas-day. The formation of a Pinafore company in this city is talked of.
